WILL MARCH ON LASSA.

The British Government's Ultimatum to the Tibetans.

London, May 13.—Indian Secretary Brockrick informed the house of commons that the government has decided that recent events in Tibet made it inevitable that the British mission must advance to Lassa, the capital, unless the Tibetans consented to negotiate at Gyangtse within a given date. The Chinese amban has been notified to this effect. At the same time, added Mr. Brockrick, the government does not intend to depart from its policy regarding Tibet, as previously announced.
All the necessary measures will be taken to secure the lines of communication.

It is reported that the Tibetans have taken the offensive against the British at Gyangtse. From a fort about six furlongs away they are steadily bombarding the camp with a half dozen guns, carrying solid cannon balls of a pound weight. Another large gathering of Tibetans is reported from the Hong valley, and although the British communications in the rear are still open, the mission is practically besieged.
